TO: LOUISIANA STATE BOARD OF NURSING MEMBERS

RE: FY 2027 ANNUAL BUDGET

Action Requested

Approval of proposed FY2027 annual budget

Summary/Background

Annual Budget

In preparing the proposed FY2027 annual budget, management considered LSBN's actual revenues and expenses through 6/30/2025, current fiscal year revenue and expenses through October 31, 2025, and historical trends to project forward. Staff is proposing a budget that continues to be conservative. The key assumptions for revenue and expenditures are provided in the following paragraphs.

Most revenue line items reflect little change from the FY 2025 actual, the notable exception being interest on investments. The current interest rate environment is such that this source of revenue will probably continue to track the decrease that has occurred in the current fiscal year, as reflected in the 10/31/25 year-to-date revenues.

Some expense line items have been reduced for expected reductions in costs. However, the majority of expense categories reflect no increases from the FY 2026 budget, with the major exception being payroll and related costs and information technology. Proposed information technology (IT) expenditures assume a 20% increase for routine hardware, software, and maintenance. Payroll expenditures include an average 3.0% merit increase for eligible staff. The consultant line item has been increased to reflect technical and consulting services relative to publishing the Examiner newsletter and other website/social media enhancements.

Capital Budget

IT capital expenditures include replacing network switches and WIFI devices which were primarily purchased before 2017. All of the network switches and wifi devices will go end of life in October 2027. All network switches and WIFI devices will be purchased from vendors approved on the Office of State Procurement (OSP) state contract for networking devices.

Fiscal Impact

As noted above.

BOARD AGENDA ITEM NO. 2.e.i

TO: LOUISIANA STATE BOARD OF NURSING MEMBERS
FROM: ALICIA WHEELER EXECUTIVE COUNSEL
RE: NCSBN GUIDELINES FOR COMPLAINTS INVOLVING MARIJUANA

Action Requested

That the Board approve the NCSBN Guidelines for Complaints Involving Marijuana.

Summary/Background

According to the CDC, as of February 2024, 47 states, the District of Columbia, and 3 territories (Guam, Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands) allow for the use of cannabis for medical purposes. Twenty-four states, the District of Columbia, and 2 territories (Guam and North Mariana Islands) allow for the use of cannabis for non-medical adult purposes. There are evolving public health, nursing practice, science, legal, educational, ethical and social issues involving the use of either medical or recreational cannabis.

The federal and state governments' divergent laws and perspectives cause complicated regulatory issues for boards of nursing (BONs).

Although the use of marijuana pursuant to authorized Medical Marijuana Programs conflicts with federal law and regulations, at present, there is no controlling case law holding that Congress intended to preempt the field of regulation of cannabis use under its supremacy powers. The federal government's position on prosecuting the use of cannabis that is legal under applicable jurisdiction law has been set out U.S. Department of Justice position papers. In 2009, the U.S. Attorney General took a position that discourages federal prosecutors from prosecuting people who distribute or use cannabis for medical purposes in compliance with applicable jurisdiction law; further similar guidance was given in 2011, 2013 and 2014. In January 2018, the U.S. Office of the Attorney General rescinded the previous nationwide guidance specific to marijuana enforcement.

The 2018 memorandum provides that federal prosecutors follow the well-established principles in deciding which cases to prosecute, namely the prosecution is to weigh all relevant considerations including priorities set by the attorneys general, seriousness of the crime, deterrent effect of criminal prosecution and cumulative impact of particular crimes on the community.

The NCSBN Board of Directors, in 2016, created a committee to develop guidelines to assist BONs in managing the many regulatory issues resulting from medical and recreational cannabis.

Since various stakeholders require differing guidelines, five separate sets of guidelines were developed after a thorough review of the literature. The guidelines for licensees and educators are included in the NCSBN National Nursing Guidelines for Medical Marijuana published in the Journal of Nursing Regulation July 2018 Supplement (NCSBN, 2018).

These guidelines serve to inform BONs of the current evidence related to cannabis and provides parameters for BON assessment and decision making for complaints involving cannabis. Specifically, these guidelines address the following issues:

1. A licensee who tests positive for Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) or its metabolite
2. An APRN licensee's improper certifying of a Medical Marijuana Program qualifying condition
3. A licensee's administration of cannabis to a patient outside of designated caregiver provisions of the Medical Marijuana Program

The NCSBN Guidelines for the Board of Nursing: Complaints Involving a Licensee and Cannabis utilizes the current evidence regarding state and federal legislation, scientific literature regarding cannabis, standards and limitations of THC testing, as well as right touch regulation. This evidence base is necessary when reviewing and determining nursing regulatory actions for complaints involving licensees and cannabis.
